INT. - SOUTH AMERICAN JUNGLE-DAY

It is a very hot and muggy day in the jungle. The bugs are thick in the air.

(ARMED GUARD) slaps a bug on the side of his neck, then takes out a rag and wipes the heavy perspiration off of his face.

EXT. - SEVERAL SMALL HUTS-CONTINUOUS

It is a fully operational cocaine and heroin processing center.

There are several armed guards walking around the perimeter.

There are (Two GUARDS) that are standing watch outside of two small huts.

INT. - 1ST SMALL HUT-CONTINUOUS

Three NUNS are tied up and blind folded.

The (TWO OLDER NUNS) are fully dressed, but the (YOUNGER NUN) 18-25, is stripped down to her panties.

INT. - 2ND SMALL HUT-CONTINUOUS

(FOUR MEN) in business suits are tied up and blind folded, lying beside them are several decomposing bodies of murdered hostages.

Flies are all around the dead bodies.

EXT. - PERIMETER-CONTINUOUS

One of the (GUARDS) LEAVES his post to make a trip to the MAKE SHIFT bathroom.

INT. - BATHROOM

The walls of the bathroom only go up to mid chest. The opening is cover with a screen to keep the bugs out.

The Armed Guard enters and pulls his pants down and sits on the toilet.

The Armed Guard FARTS LOUDLY making the other Guards LAUGH that are walking the perimeter.

As the Armed Guard finishes his business he reaches for the toilet paper. When he rolls down the paper he notices something is written on the toilet paper.

CONTINUED:

INSERT: Toilet Paper note, (Hey Asshole, See you in Hell!)

Before the Guard can yell out a warning to the other guards around him the Bathroom EXPLODES.

EXT. - PERIMETER-CONTINUOUS

As guards rush toward the explosion they are being picked up by nooses extending down from the trees.

They hang helplessly FIRING their weapons in all directions as they choke to death.

Private (BENSON) 18-25, and Specialist (MCKAY) 18-25, are SHOOTING the approaching Guards as they repel down from the trees.

INT. - 2ND SMALL HUT-CONTINUOUS

A GUARD runs into each hut ready to kill the hostages.

(DIRK) 35-50, a Special Forces soldier who has been hiding in camouflage next to the wall.

Suddenly, Dirk comes right out of the wall and stabs the guard through the neck.

INT. - 1ST SMALL HUT-CONTINUOUS

A (GUARD) is having fun beating one of the older Nuns. She CRIES OUT in agony with each blow as blood flies from her mouth and nose.

GUARD

Where's your God now, Bitch?

The Guard draws back to hit the Nun again when the door flies open and Sergeant (ROCK) 30-50, steps in while DISCHARGING his shotgun at the Guard.

The Guard's right hand is shot off.

The Guard SCREAMS out in pain.

CLOSE ON: Bloody stump

Sgt. Rock throws a knife next to the Younger Nun sticking in it the ground.

The Young Nun quickly grabs it in order to free herself.

CONTINUED:

ROCK

Sorry, God was a little busy, so he sent me in his place, I hope you don't mind?

GUARD

You shot my fucking hand off asshole. I'm going to kill you Mother Fucker!

and attempts to aim it at Sgt. Rock, but before he can, Sgt.
Rock FIRES his shotgun again.

SHOT GUN BLAST

The blast blows off the guard's other hand.

THE GUARD WHIMPERS

CLOSE ON: Two bloody stumps

GUARD (CONT'D)

(In lots of pain)
I'm still going to kill you, mother fucker!

ROCK

(Sarcastically)
With what?

The guard walks toward Sgt. Rock

GUARD

With my fucking dick, bitch!

The Young Nun has now freed herself and is pointing the gun at the Guard's groin.

ROCK

Something tells me you're not going to have that for much longer either.

The Guard's expression changes from anger to one of shock.

The Young Nun pulls the trigger and SHOOTS the Guard in the genitals, killing him.

Rock takes the gun away from the traumatized Young Nun.

ROCK (CONT'D)
(To Young Nun)
I got it from a higher authority; this one won't count against you. I think the other sisters will agree with me?

Both older nuns shake their heads yes in agreement.

The young nun has a faint smile upon her face.

EXT. - 1ST SMALL HUT-CONTINUOUS

Sgt. Rock exits the small hut first wearing his tee shirt.

Sgt. Rock motions to the Nuns to follow him. The Young Nun is now wearing Rock's Shirt.

They make their escape through the jungle.

EXT. - PERIMETER-CONTINUOUS

OPEN AREA

The guards are advancing toward the huts when they run into Specialist (COPELAND) 18-25, African American male and Private (RAMOS) 18-25, Hispanic female just standing out in the open, waving for the armed men to advance.

Just as the guards decide to stop and shoot at them, a Claymore mine DETONATES.

EXPLOSION - all of the advancing guards are killed.

AT THE HUTS

(PVT. FIELDS) 18-25, Caucasian male (LT. NEAL) 35-50, Caucasian male and (PVT. WHITEHURST) 18-25, African American male have the main force pinned down, in and around several huts.

EXT. - 2ND SMALL HUT-CONTINUOUS

A (LARGE GUARD) 30-45, swings a machete at sergeant (KIM) 25-35, Asian male barely missing his head as he sneaks up on him. Kim throws a back kick knocking the man backwards several steps.

The Large Guard challenges Kim by banging his machete on his chest.

CONTINUED:

Kim then draws a Samurai sword from his back and gets ready for a fight. They circle each other several times, just then Specialist McKay comes around the corner and surprises them.

MCKAY

Kim, you need help?

KIM

(While shaking his head)

No, this one's all mind...

Dirk brings the male hostages and has McKay take them to safety.

DIRK

Don't take all day Kim, just kill him and get it over with!

ACTION SERIES (Kim fights with the large guard)

1.) -- The Large Guard swings his machete at Kim who ducks, rolls, and cuts deeply in to one of the man's legs.

2.) -- Despite being wounded the Large Guard advances again.

3.) -- This time Kim blocks with his sword and then cuts the man's right hand off.

The hand falls to the ground still clenching the machete.

4.) -- The Large Guard manages to punch Kim with the other hand in the face.

5.) -- Angry, Kim throws a knife hitting the Large Guard in the neck and only dropping him briefly to the ground.

6.) -- Kim moves in for the kill just as several bullets WIZ passed his head.

One of the stray bullets hits the Large Guard in the shoulder knocking him down to the ground.

7.) -- Copeland and Ramos run past on their way to the Departure Point.

Whitehurst, Fields, and Neal are right behind them FIRING their weapons as they run with the bulk of the enemy only a hundred yards away.

LT NEAL

Kim, move your ass now, that's an order!

CONTINUED: (2)

Kim reluctantly puts his sword away and picks up his weapon. The Large Guard gets back up to his feet again.

KIM

Next time...

Kim follows behind the rest of his squad out of the area.

(CARLOS) 35-55, Hispanic male, the leader of the drug gang is right behind them shooting his pistol at them.

CARLOS

I want those mother fuckers' heads on a plate, now!

Carlos kicks at several of his men who are advancing much slower than he wants them too.

One of his men gets wound in the leg and falls to the ground.

CARLOS (CONT'D)

Get up mother fucker and go get them.

The man tries, but falls back to the ground.

CARLOS (CONT'D)

Fuck it, you're fired!

Carlos SHOOTS, killing the gang member.

Carlos can only watch in disgust as the American soldiers escape with his hostages.

EXT. - SOUTH AMERICA ARCHEOLOGY DIG-DAY

(DR MICHAELS) 50-70, a Senior Professor, stands watch as two college students (CHANG) 20-25, Asian male and (MARSHA) 20-25, African American female are arguing.

Chang and Marsha are trying to remove the same piece of pottery from it's resting spot.

While fighting over a very old piece of pottery they accidentally break it.

They are blaming each other for the damage as the head of the project Dr. Michaels looks on.

CONTINUED:

MICHAELS

(Upset)

You must have patients while preserving each and every specimen, breaking historical evidence is a crime against mankind. Not to mention destroying such evidence would be like throwing your Doctorate degree out the window.

Chang and Marsha stop to hear what Dr. Michaels is saying.

MICHAELS (CONT'D)

If it happens again I will have you both removed from this dig and sent home. Do I make myself clear?

CHANG

I'm sorry Doctor Michaels, it was all my fault; I'll try and be more careful.

MARSHA

He's right Professor it was his fault.

Chang gives a look of betrayal to Marsha. They then start arguing again.

Michaels is very disappointed in their behavior.

(QUINTON) 30-45, Caucasian male, the 2nd in Command at the dig walks up to speak with the professor.

QUINTON

Excuse me Professor Michaels, you're going to want to see what the students uncovered at the other site.

MICHAELS

Hopefully they're not breaking every other piece of artifact they find like these two knuckleheads.

QUINTON

I promise, you won't be disappointed.

Dr. Michaels decides to follow Quinton after watching Marsha and Chang drop another artifact.

CONTINUED: (2)

MICHAELS

Very well, lead on, I don't think I can stand watching these two vandals break another piece of history.

EXT. - DIG SITE 211-CONTINUOUS

Dr. Michaels and Quinton arrive as they finish exposing the skeletal remains of a Carnotaurus. Its ribs are fully exposed.

MICHAELS

Very interesting, this maybe the first Carnotaurus ever found outside of Argentina.

QUINTON

I have something even more interesting to show you Professor.

Quinton points to the rib bones.

QUINTON (CONT'D)

Look closer Professor.

Dr. Michaels gets close to examine the bones.

QUINTON (CONT'D)

What do you think it is?

CLOSE ON: Rib bones with human bite marks on them.

MICHAELS

If I didn't know better I would swear that those indentations are human bite marks. But, that's impossible because this creature pre-dates man by 60 million years.

QUINTON

Then, what could have caused it?

MICHAELS

Perhaps insects or even decomposition.

MICHAELS (CONT'D)

I would like you to have someone run a DNA analysis on it once we have it logged and secured.

CONTINUED:

(SARAH) 25-30, a beautiful Caucasian female comes up to Quinton and grabs him, excited over something her team has discovered.

SARAH

(Excited)

You have to come and check out what the workers have unearthed at site 300. It's incredible!

QUINTON

You found another dinosaur?

SARAH

No... You found a dinosaur?

Quinton points to the remains of the Carnotaurus.

SARAH (CONT'D)

Wow, that's cool, but its nothing like what we found on the other side.

MICHAELS

Today's just full of surprises.
Let's go see what you have found.

With great curiosity Dr. Michaels and Quinton follow Sarah.

EXT. - DIG SITE 300-CONTINUOUS

They have partially exposed a large pit of hundreds, possibly thousands of human skeletal remains.

MICHAELS

Well, this is interesting.

SARAH

We think it might be a sacrificial burial ground.

Quinton walks over and picks up a couple of the bones and examines them.

CLOSE ON: Human leg bones with human bites on them.

QUINTON

I think we might be standing on the home of the Earth's first race of cannibals.

CONTINUED:

(JEFF) 30-45, Hispanic male, the leader of the workers agrees.

JEFF

That would explain why we haven't found two connecting bones in a natural position.

MICHAELS

(Puzzled)

This dig site is getting stranger by the minute. I'm going back to the tents and do a little research on the time lines. Let me know if anything else is found, as if it could get any stranger...

QUINTON

Yes Dr. Michaels, I'll let you know the minute something else weird is discovered.

Dr. Michaels leaves.

Sarah gives and order to her crew of 5 workers.

SARAH

Let's spend the next hour cataloging what we have already dug up and call it a day, okay?

THE WORKERS AGREE

Quinton grabs Sarah's hand and turns her toward him and before he can kiss her she kisses him and smiles.

Sarah is hiding something behind her back.

QUINTON

I think this calls for some celebrating tonight, my tent say; about eight o'clock?

SARAH

(Joking)

Can we make it 9:00 I promised this other guy I just met today that we could spend a little time together.

QUINTON

(A little jealous)

I would like to meet this guy who's making moves on my girl.

CONTINUED:

SARAH

Okay, but I have to warn you he is an older man,
(Smiles)
And you know how much I like older men?

Quinton suspiciously looks around to see if the person is standing nearby.

Sarah Smiles and then shows Quinton a Skull she has had hidden behind her back.

SARAH (CONT'D)

This is Henry,
(To the head)
Henry this is your competition, meet Quinton.

QUINTON

Okay Henry, I will share her with you tonight, but you'll have to keep your hands to yourself, that is if we find them. And then, tomorrow you are nothing more than a memory, just a head in a box on its way to some museum.

SARAH

I wonder if Henry is a good kisser?

Quinton gets close to Sarah.

QUINTON

I think I have the advantage in that area, since Henry doesn't have any lips.

Quinton kisses Sarah.

SARAH

(Enjoys the moment)
Yeah, lips are important...

Quinton and Sarah continue kissing

DAYS LATER:

EXT. - NEW DIG SITE-301-DAY

Dr. Michaels, Sarah, and Quinton are standing around as two workers bring up some unusual bones on a sifting screen.

CONTINUED:

QUINTON

Let's see what you found.

As they move the screen to the side of the dig, it becomes apparent that it isn't a normal human skeleton.

CLOSE ON: It is fully intact with some strong connective tissue attached to the bones.

The skeleton is larger than normal it's head is misshapen. Its chest has extra dense bones protecting the chest cavity.

Sarah, Jeff, and Quinton take a closer look.

SARAH

Is it a birth defect?

JEFF

If it is, then why are there three more just like it buried down there?

QUINTON

Three more!

Quinton looks very closely at the skeleton.

CLOSE ON: The chest and head of the skeleton have dozens of indentations from ancient blunt force weapons.

QUINTON (CONT'D)

Wow, this guy must have been very hard to kill, just look at all the weapons marks on the rib cage.

Quinton notices Doctor Michaels arriving at the dig site.

QUINTON (CONT'D)

What's your take on this one, Doctor Michaels?

MICHAELS

Fascinating; when I report this to the authorities I think things are going to get very exciting around here. I think our funding will be secure for the foreseeable future.

HOURS LATER:

Quinton and Sarah are walking together on their way to get something to eat, when they are stopped by Dr. Michaels.

CONTINUED:

MICHAELS

I have been instructed by our government to secure the four unidentified remains and post a guard around the clock on them.

QUINTON

They're secured; I already have them locked up in the tool hut. Is it really necessary to have a guard?

MICHAELS

That's what the State Department wants and if we don't cooperate, they may force us back to the U.S.

QUINTON

Alright, let me get some people on it. Sarah, you go on without me and I'll catch up to you in a few minutes.

Michaels puts his arm out for Sarah to take.

MICHAELS

I'm free for dinner.

Sarah smiles and takes his arm, together they head to the mess tent.

WORKERS TENT

Several men are drinking at one table while a couple of other men are playing a card game.

Quinton enters the tent.

QUINTON

Hey Jeff, I'm going to need several of your men for a special assignment tonight. Dr. Michaels has been ordered by the State Department to guard our special friends until their team arrives tomorrow morning.

JEFF

(To Everyone)

Alright, you heard the boss, eight men, one hour shifts. I have the first watch; we'll just go around the room.

CONTINUED:

QUINTON

Thanks Jeff, I'll see you in the morning.

EARLY MORNING

EXT. - TOOL SHED

(LOPEZ) 25-45, Hispanic male is getting bored; he begins to wonder what all the fuss is about.

After several minutes he decides to go inside the tool shed to sneak a peek.

INT. - TOOL SHED

The alien bodies are lying on a table covered up with tarps. Lopez pulls back one of the tarps and shines his flash light on the skeleton.

Lopez is shocked by the size and the abnormality of the remains.

LOPEZ

El Diablo!

As Lopez moves his light over the body he notices a shiny reflection in the alien's chest cavity.

Very Old shiny object in the chest cavity.

Lopez looks around, making sure no one is watching.

LOPEZ (CONT'D)

(To Himself)

They won't miss it.

Lopez reaches into the chest cavity and just as he grabs hold of the object a rat runs into the shed, startling him.

Lopez nervously flinches cutting his hand on the rib cage while pulling out the necklace.

LOPEZ (CONT'D)

Damn it, you stupid rat!

Lopez licks the blood off his hand and smiles as he takes a few seconds to admire the necklace.

CLOSE ON: A Medallion of some sort, alien in nature.

Lopez then places the medallion in his pocket.

CONTINUED:

Lopez then pulls the tarp back up over the skeletal remains. But, while doing so he drips several drops of blood on the remains and several more on the floor.

Lopez leaves and closes the door, the rat makes it way over to the blood on the floor and eats some of it.

INT. - WORKERS TENT-DAY

Jeff wakes up just as (HOSEA) 25-50, Hispanic male is coming in from the last guard watch.

Lopez's bunk is empty.

JEFF

Didn't you relief Lopez?

HOSEA

Yeah, a little more than an hour ago.

Jeff looks over at Lopez's bunk wondering why he didn't return.

INT. - CHOW TENT

Many people are getting breakfast; Quinton and Sarah are sitting and eating together when (WALTER) 30-50, Caucasian male comes running into the tent to find them.

WALTER

Quinton, you're not going to believe this...

Walter is overly excited,

SARAH

Sit down Walter and relax, have a cup of coffee.

Quinton directs him to sit down.

WALTER

Okay, but just for a second!

Walter sits down as Sarah pours him a cup of coffee.

WALTER (CONT'D)

Thank you;

QUINTON

Now, what is this all about?

CONTINUED:

Walter sips the coffee,

WALTER
(Enjoying the taste)
That really is good coffee.

Sarah and Quinton are waiting for the answer.

WALTER (CONT'D)
Oh, those samples from the possible alien corpse you gave me to test, as it turns out the cells aren't dead at all, they're just dormant.

SARAH
You mean they're still alive?

QUINTON
That's impossible, it has been down there at least a million years.

WALTER
I'm telling you when I placed the cells on the Petri dish the cells grew so fast I had to burn the dish.

SARAH
So, if this thing got loose it could spread?

WALTER
Whether, its cells from the actual alien or a virus that has somehow hijacked the host cells after death, I don't know...
(Sips the coffee again)
All I really know is that it knows how to survive, and spread given the right opportunity...

Sarah and Quinton get a serious and concern look upon their faces.

QUINTON
We can't let this thing get out. We are going to have to notify Dr.
Michaels and begin a quarantine of

HELICOPTER LANDING

QUINTON (CONT'D)
I wonder if they already know?

WALTER Who?

QUINTON
The people that are landing in our back yard. Let's go see who it is.

LANDING PAD

The helicopter has already left and now there are three men talking with Dr. Michaels.

Two of the men are scientist; the other is (MR. FIELDS) 45-60, African American male from The State Department.

QUINTON
Dr. Michaels, Dr. Michaels I need to speak with you.

Michaels turns and invites them to join him in his conversation with the members of the State Department.

MICHAELS
Let me introduce, my second in charge, Quinton, and Sarah our Paleontologist... And this is Walter our geneticist.

Everyone shakes hands

MR FIELDS
Nice to meet you all. I'm Mr.
Fields from the State Department and we are here to examine your unique find.

QUINTON
That is what I was going to talk with you about Dr. Michaels; we might have a possible biological contagion on our hands.

The Scientists look at each other like they already know what is going on.

MR FIELDS
(Already knows)
Before we jump to any conclusions, we need to examine the remains.

CONTINUED:

MICHAELS

I will go get the release forms for the remains, while Quinton and Sarah show you to the tool shed where the bodies are being kept.

INT. - WORKERS TENT-DAY

Hosea is getting something from his personal items when Lopez enters the tent with blood shot eyes and dripping of sweat.
Lopez is transforming into something else.

HOSEA

Yo, Lopez man, you don't look so good.

Hosea helps Lopez to his bunk.

Stay right here. I'll be right back with the doctor.

Hosea leaves,

Lopez is so hungry he starts chewing on his own forearm.

INT. - TOOL SHED-CONTINUOUS

The scientists and Mr. Fields open their boxes and pull out biohazard suits and put them on.

Quinton starts to open the door to the shed when one Scientist stops him.

SCIENTIST 1

Wait, first put on a suit.

QUINTON

You're right, sorry I wasn't thinking.

Taking the scientist's advice Quinton, Sarah and Walter all suit up.

After putting on the biohazard suits Quinton cautiously opens the door and enters with everyone else following him into the tool shed.

Quinton makes his way to the covered remains and starts to pull the tarp down when one of the Scientists stops him.

The Scientist points to the small spot of blood on the top of the tarp.

CONTINUED:

MR FIELDS

We'll need to find the last man who was in this shed.

QUINTON

I'll ask Jeff who had the last watch.

After collecting the blood sample the Scientists pulls down the tarp to expose the alien corpse.

WALTER

(Astonished)

Look at the 6th thoracic rib bone.

CLOSE ON: Rib is growing new flesh on it.

SARAH

What the hell is going on?

MR FIELDS

I'm sorry, but I'm afraid we are all under quarantine. I need everyone in the Mess Hall tent in one hour, no exceptions.

SARAH

People are going to want to know what's going on.

MR FIELDS

I will contact my superiors and it will be up to them as to what I can tell them.

INT. - WORKERS TENT-CONTINUOUS

Hosea is almost dragging doctor (LENNOX) 35-60, African American male into the tent to treat Lopez.

HOSEA

He's in his bunk; he is really sick and acting strangely.

They look around, but Lopez is gone.

HOSEA (CONT'D)

I left him right here, he was very sick, he couldn't have gone far.

CONTINUED:

LENNOX

Let me know when you find him, right now I need to go back and finish suturing Chang's little finger back on.

Hosea notices blood on Lopez's bed.

HOSEA

Doctor look!

Lennox looks,

CLOSE ON: Large amount of blood on the blanket.

LENNOX

He should be easy to find. With that much blood loss he's not going to get very far.

EXT. - TOOL SHED

Mr. Fields is on the phone as the two Scientists are erecting a quarantine tent over and around the tool shed.

MR FIELDS

(On Phone)

Yes, sir- It's alien alright, maybe a million years old.

(Pauses)

Yes sir,

(Pauses)

I've already started the quarantine protocol; will we be getting additional support?

(Pauses)

Thank you, I'll keep you informed.

FOREST-DAY

Lopez is mutating into an un-dead alien creature, with a heightened sense of smell, and vision.

His strength and speed have increased supernaturally.

In a split second Lopez snatches a small animal from its hiding place and eats it like a starving beast.

INT. - SOUTH AMERICAN MILITARY SUPPORT BASE-DAY

The soldiers are getting ready to go on a mission, Dirk is in his camouflage, and Rock is sharpening his long knife while waiting for the rest of the men to get there.

CONTINUED:

Finally, Whitehurst, Ramos, Fields, Kim, Copeland, McKay, and Benson show up as well.

Seconds later Lt. Neal walks up to talk to the group.

LT NEAL

This is a top secret mission; you'll all be informed once we are in the air. Sergeant, let's get these people in the chopper.

SGT ROCK

You heard the man, let's move out!

INT. - SMALL VILLAGE-DAY

Lopez wanders into the village and no one seems to pay any attention to him.

Lopez's uncontrolled hunger is for protein and it is overwhelming all his human senses.

When Lopez can't resist any longer he attacks a (YOUNG BOY) and begins eating him with all of the villagers looking on.

VILLAGERS SCREAMING

Several men try and beat him off the small boy, but he quickly over powers them and starts eating on them as well.

MINUTES LATER:

There are half eaten bodies everywhere. As Lopez is snacking on a woman, the small boy sits up despite missing half his face and his right eye.

INT. - JUNGLE-CONTINUOUS

The head of the drug gang, Carlos is standing beside the Large Guard who has been bandaged up.

All of his men are standing around Carlos to hear him speak.

CARLOS

The Americans have stolen something from us, now we will take from them. We will go to the old ruins and take what ever they have found there. Leave no one alive.

A really (DIRTY GUARD) 25-50, Hispanic male speaks up,

CONTINUED:

DIRTY GUARD
Can we rape the women?

CARLOS
Sure, you can even rape the men too if you want, just make sure you kill them all before we leave.

The Gang gets excited and SHOOTs their weapons into the air.

1 HOUR LATER:

INT. - CHOW TENT

Everyone is gathered inside, Mr. Fields is about to make a presentation, when Hosea comes in late.

HOSEA
I'm sorry Dr. Michaels, but I can't find Lopez anywhere.

QUINTON
Did he pull one of the guard shifts last night?

HOSEA
See, and when he came back he was really sick, I brought back the doctor to look at him, but he was already gone.

MR FIELDS
Okay, none of you leaves this tent without my permission until Lopez is found.

MR FIELDS (CONT'D)
That will be my security team.
Quinton, Dr. Michaels, please come with me.

LANDING AREA

Lt. Neal has his men already on the ground locked and loaded.

Quickly they form a security perimeter around the landing zone.

LT NEAL
Who is in charge here?

CONTINUED:

MR FIELDS

I'm Mr. Fields, Director of Operations; you'll be answering to me.

LT NEAL

Lieutenant Neal Sir, this is 5th Recon, we are all yours until I here other wise from my Commander.

MICHAELS

Hello, I'm Dr. Michaels and this is my dig site. Quinton is my operations manager. If you need anything he is your man.

They all shake hands.

MR FIELDS

Lieutenant Neal, we will need your services right away, we have a missing man with a possibility of contamination.

QUINTON

His name is Lopez; he's been missing most of the day.

LT NEAL

This Lopez, is he from the area?

MICHAELS

I believe so; many of our workers are from a village 20 miles east of here.

LT NEAL

Is there somewhere secure we can store our equipment?

MICHAELS

Yes, you can lock it in the storage shed.

INT. - STORAGE SHED

The soldiers throw their equipment on the floor and leave.

Several half eaten infected rats find their way into the field packs seconds after the soldiers leave the shed.

INT. - JUNGLE-CONTINUOUS

The gang of 30 Hispanic Drug dealers approaches the Small village. Carlos signals the caravan of jeeps and trucks to stop.

CARLOS

I'm hungry, let's get something to eat.

(Smells the air)

I think we are just in time for dinner. Something smells delicious!

(Rubs his belly)

Let's all go to dinner!

They quickly begin parking their vehicles.

INT. SMALL VILLAGE-CONTINUOUS

The village looks deserted except for the large pot cooking in the center of the village.

Carlos and his men walk past the first hut and no one comes to greet them.

They continue to the pot that is cooking over the small open fire.

Carlos lifts the lid on the pot to smell the aroma without looking to see what is inside.

CLOSE ON: A human head being cooked.

The rest of his men see the head being cooked and are in shock.

CARLOS

Mum, mum, I can't wait to try some of this!

Carlos puts the lid back on.

DIRTY GUARD

(Scared)

Hey boss, I really don't think you want to try any of that soup.

CARLOS

Why not, it smells good?

They all push the Dirty Guard to explain to Carlos what they all saw in the pot.

DIRTY GUARD (Expecting to possibly be killed)
I'm sorry boss, but I think it's your brother-n-law, Felix?

Carlos is not getting it until they all point to the pot again.

Carlos slowly lifts the lid again; and then slowly looks under the lid.

Carlos freaks out when he sees his brother-n-law's head.

CARLOS
What sick bastard would do this?
(Yells) Come out you sick mother fucker and face me like a man!

Carlos draws his weapons and starts SHOOTING into the air.

Slowly the infected villagers begin to realize there is fresh meat in the village.

The infected villagers slowly creep out from their hiding places.

CARLOS (CONT'D)
That's it, come on out so I can kill you, and then maybe I eat you too, like you did Felix!

One member of the drug gang gets scared and turns to run, but an (INFECTED LITTLE GIRL) 5-12, Hispanic female gets in his way.

Infected little girl stands and stares at first then displays a bloody small smile.

The gang member returns her smile. She then licks her lips and charges at him knocking him down.

Once on the ground several other villagers begin to join in on the feast of his flesh.

CARLOS (CONT'D)
Kill these mother fucking, kill them all!

All the drug gang members open FIRE; the bullets seem to have very little effect in slowing or stopping the infected.

One gang member SHOOTs an infected in his head, blowing his head completely off, but the infected person still manages to drag him down to the ground while holding onto him.

This allows the other infected to move in for lunch on his flesh.

The Dirty Guard FIRES two shots into the little girl and all it does is make her very mad causing her to look up and GROWLS.

The Dirty Guard waves at the Little girl as if he didn't mean to shoot her.

The Little girl responds by going right back to eating, giving the Dirty Guard a sense of relief.

Carlos realizes he can't kill them, so he starts SHOOTING their legs off.

CARLOS (CONT'D)
Get to the jeeps!

Carlos, Dirty Guard and 10 men escape to the trucks to find, Large Guard is being feasted upon by three village children.

They manage to get two vehicles running and start to leave,

Suddenly, a head belonging to one of the gang members is thrown into the lap of the driver.

CLOSE ON: The head is alive and hungry; it bites the driver in the groin.

While the Driver is reacting to being bitten he crashes the #1 JEEP into a tree.

The infected are fast approaching.

The Driver of Carlos's jeep #2 stops to let the survivors of the jeep #1 crash to get onto the jeep before the infected over take them.

An infected villager gets in the way of the Jeep as it leaves and is run over.

The driver stops briefly.

CARLOS (CONT'D)
(To Driver)
Don't stop! You stop again and I'll kill you!

INT. - JEEP-CONTINUOUS

The soldiers are driving along a dirt road in two jeeps headed toward the village. Sgt. Rock is driving the jeep with Quinton in the front seat.

SGT ROCK

Sorry, you have to be here, but we need you to identify Lopez for us.

QUINTON

I just hope he hasn't infected anyone else.

SGT ROCK

Do you think this thing is spread by direct contact?

QUINTON

I don't know I mean there were about 10 of us who had contact with the alien remains all day yesterday and none of us came down with any unusual symptoms.

Sgt Rock adjusts his side arm.

SGT ROCK

I like you doc, but if you start doing any weird shit, I'll have to put you down.

Quinton is very nervous,

QUINTON

Please, define weird shit?

SGT ROCK

I don't know, could be anything, when I see it I'll know.

Quinton is very scared, and starts looking around for an ally.

QUINTON

Can I ride in the other jeep on the way back?

SGT ROCK

Believe me Doc, you're safer with me. The other guys wouldn't tell you if they were going to shoot you.

QUINTON

Well that's good, now I feel a lot better.

INT. - JUNGLE-CONTINUOUS

Carlos's jeep is slowing down and stopping because the engine is acting weird.

CARLOS

Didn't I tell you I was going to kill you if we stopped again?

DRIVER

It's not me there's something wrong with the engine.

The jeep stalls and then comes to a complete stop everyone just looks at each other in fear.

CARLOS

Get out and fix it.

The Driver is very reluctant, so Carlos puts a gun to his head and he reluctantly gets out.

The driver goes and lifts the hood of the jeep and takes a quick look at the engine.

CLOSE ON: Engine looks normal

Its acting like it's not getting any gas. I'm not sure if I can fix it.

Carlos aims his gun at the head of the driver again, but this time he pulls the hammer back.

DRIVER (CONT'D)

(Nervously)

Stop! I can fix it, just wait.

The driver reaches under the jeep.

UNDER JEEP

The infected villager that was run over before is now stuck to the bottom of the jeep and is chewing on the gas line.

The infected villager stops chewing on the gas line when he sees the Driver's hand, and then he decides to chew on it instead.

DRIVER SCREAMS

OUTSIDE JEEP

The drug gang members try to help pull the Driver and his arm free, but the infected villager is fighting even harder to keep it.

Then all at once, the infected villager releases his grip on the Driver's arm.

The two drug gang members fight amongst themselves to see who is going to have to look under the jeep; one of them looses and reluctantly looks under the jeep with his gun drawn.

UNDER JEEP

The infected villager is now gone, the drug gang member is relieved and reconnects the fuel line and gets back up to his feet.

OUTSIDE JEEP

The Driver is now passed out from the blood loss and is lying on the ground.

CARLOS

Get in...

The two drug gang members point to the passed out driver.

CARLOS (CONT'D)

Leave him!

The men get back in the jeep; leaving the former driver to die.

The jeep drives off

INT. JEEP- CONTINUOUS

A CRUNCHING SOUND OF SOMEONE EATING BONES

Carlos slowly turns around to discover and infected villager finishing off the last of his men in the back seat.

The infected villager SNARLS and show Carlos his bloody teeth.

CARLOS

Fuck you, I'm not on the menu!

CONTINUED:

Carlos SHOOTs the infected villager with a sawed off shotgun, the BLAST knocks the infected villager off the back of the jeep.

The infected villager quickly crawls across the dirt road and into the jungle.

5 MINUTES LATER:

The jeep runs completely out of gas and comes to a slow stop.

CARLOS
(To the driver)
Let's get the hell out of here!

Carlos and his remaining gang member take off through the jungle.

Seconds later the two dead gang members lying in the back of the jeep revive as infected, they have a huge hunger, they smell the air for flesh.

When they get a scent they take off running through the jungle after Carlos and the gang member.

SECONDS LATER:

The soldier's convoy drives past Carlos's parked jeep on their way to the village.

INT. - JEEP-CONTINUOUS

Quinton looks out the open window at the empty jeep.

QUINTON
That's odd,

SGT ROCK
What?

QUINTON
No one leaves a vehicle in this country without it being completely stripped down.

INT. - SMALL VILLAGE-CONTINUOUS

The soldiers get out of the jeeps and lock and load their weapons.

QUINTON
What about me? Don't I get something, maybe a handgun?

SGT ROCK

I wouldn't worry about it doc, if something gets past us, you're probably already dead.

QUINTON

What do you mean, already dead?

SGT ROCK

Don't worry about it doc, just stay close by.

The soldiers spread out and begin searching the village. Everyone can feel something is watching them, but there is no evidence.

Everyone completes their search and converges into the middle of the village.

They all stop moving when they hear something. There is Something BANGING on the kettle from the inside.

Lt. Neal motions to Sgt Rock and Quinton to go check out the pot.

The fire is now out and there is no steam coming from the kettle, but it is acting like something is boiling inside making a noise as something hits the lid.

Sgt Rock motions for Quinton to look inside the kettle, Quinton shakes his head no; Sgt Rock shows him his weapon and points to the kettle.

Reluctantly Quinton walks up to the kettle.

Quinton starts to move the lid, but the kettle is still a little warm and Quinton burns himself.

Sgt Rock then tosses Quinton a knife.

KNOCK ON THE INSIDE OF THE KETTLE

Quinton slowly lifts the lid off, and to his shock and surprise it is Lopez's head.

QUINTON

I think Its Lopez, but there's a strange deformity of his forehead.

Sgt Rock walks over and picks up the head by the hair.

CONTINUED:

SGT ROCK

You'll probably need to study it right, doc?

CLOSE ON: Lopez's slightly deformed head. The eyes open and it tries to bite Sgt Rock.

Sgt Rock throws the head on the ground and SHOOTs at it until he runs out of ammo in his clip.

LT NEAL

Was that really necessary?

Lt. Neal takes a closer look at what Rock was shooting at.

CLOSE ON: The Badly shot up head - Its eyes open

LT NEAL (CONT'D)

Damn! It's still alive, someone bag that thing up.

Dirk carefully puts the head in a biohazard bag.

WHITEHURST

This is some real, Dawn of the Dead shit, Man!

QUINTON

Where do you think the people went?

SGT ROCK

They're still here; I can feel them watching us right now.

Quinton decides to try and talk with them.

QUINTON

Hello, is there anybody here?

The little girl slowly walks out into the center of the village holding a blood soaked doll.

Everyone has their eyes trained on her.

When the little girl gets close enough to charge, she looks up revealing that she is infected.

The little girl charges at Benson. He raises his 203 grenade launcher and SHOOTs the little girl,

BLOWING her up into a million pieces.

Everyone looks over at Benson.

BENSON
(Notices everyone looking)
What can I say, I hate kids!

Benson reloads his smoking 203 grenade launcher.

LT NEAL
Everyone get back to the jeeps!
McKay, let Mr. Fields know this thing is no longer contained.

McKay gets on the radio.

MCKAY
(On radio)
This is secure one to base do you copy, over?

INT. - CHOW TENT-CONTINUOUS

Everyone is in the tent bored and pacing around. A voice comes over Mr. Field's radio.

MCKAY V.O.
(On radio)
This is secure one to base do you copy, over?

FIELDS
(Radio receiver)
This is base go ahead.

INT. - SMALL VILLAGE

MCKAY V.O.
(On Radio)
Be advised, we have possession of partial subject, containment no longer possible. Will debrief upon arrival back at base.

INT. - CHOW TENT

FIELDS

SARAH

You're going to need our help; we are both experts in our fields.

Mr. Fields thinks about it for a second,

FIELDS

Here is what we are going to do, everyone will put their name on a list and give it to the Asian guy.

Chang is very mad,

CHANG

It's Chang, not Asian guy.

FIELDS

Okay Chang, you're in charge and if someone doesn't report back in, it's your ass.

(To everyone)

Everyone will report back here every hour on the hour, people don't make me come looking for you.

The Workers from the nearby village begin to slowly sneak off and run away.

INT. - SMALL VILLAGE-CONTINUOUS

McKay walks back over to the others after ending his radio transmission.

Everyone is watching an arm slowly crawling toward them in amazement.

SGT ROCK

That's some fucked up shit Lt, what have you gotten us into?

RAMOS

That damn thing is too big to belong to the little girl, who do you think it belongs too, Rock?

SGT ROCK

If I had to guess; I would say the dude standing next to the guy with the machete.

Several dozen infected villagers are standing at the edge of the village.

CONTINUED:

One infected man is missing his arm and is standing right beside another infected man who is holding a machete, all of them looking very hungry.

LT NEAL
Lock-n-Load people unless you want to become dinner!

The soldiers OPEN FIRE cutting several of the infected completely in half.

Head shots, aren't as effective as they should be, some require two head shots before they fall.

The shooting stops when the infected are no longer a threat.

QUINTON
We need to burn the bodies, that way this doesn't continue to spread.

LT NEAL
How do you know we got them all?

QUINTON
We don't...

30 MINUTES LATER:

The last of the body pieces are thrown onto the fire in the center of the village with the rest of the infected limbs.

Then, Benson notice one more arm they missed and goes to pick it up.

When Benson bends down to pick it up he finds out that it is attached to another infected (LITTLE GIRL) 5-12, Hispanic female jumps up and rips a huge chunk OF flesh from his forearm with her teeth.

BENSON SCREAMS OUT IN PAIN,

Kim quickly takes out his sword and while the infected little girl is eating the flesh from Benson's arm he cuts off her head.

BENSON
Now, you all see why I don't like fucking kids, right?

Kim prepares to cut off Benson's head. Benson responds by pointing his weapon back at Kim.

BENSON (CONT'D)

You better back the fuck up before
I cap your ass!

KIM

Sir, he's infected, soon he'll be one of them.

LT. Neal is having trouble deciding,

SGT ROCK

Lt., we don't kill our own, besides we don't know for sure how this thing is being transmitted.

LT NEAL

Alright, he's coming with us, someone secure his weapon.

Kim slowly puts his sword back away.

KIM

(To Benson)

When you change, I will kill you, honorably.

Benson gives Kim a real dirty look.

INT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

The tent is full of scientific equipment.

One scientist is taking more tissue samples from the alien corpses while the other scientist is running another DNA test.

Walter is getting very tired looking through the microscope and doesn't see the infected rat that is under his chair just inches away from his feet.

Walter scratching his foot by knocking the other shoe off to expose the itchy place.

For several seconds it looks like the rat is going to bite Walter's foot, then it leaves and goes under the alien corpses just as Walter stands up.

WALTER

Hey, I got to get some coffee in me, you guys want any?

Scientist 1 shakes his head no, and Scientist 2 shows him his thermos.

WALTER (CONT'D)

I'll be back in about 10 minutes.

Walter leaves, Scientist 1 collecting the new tissue samples drops his tool and bends down to pick it up.

UNDER THE TABLE

The infected is inches away from his hand, just as it is about to attack the Scientist 1 picks the tool up and stands back up.

TOP OF TABLE

Several infected rats are sitting on the tarp covering one of the corpses ready to eat scientist 1.

Scientist 1 slowly backs away to run, but when he turns; he runs right into the other Scientist 2 who is already infected, his teeth are visible through his half eaten face.

The infected Scientist 2 quickly kills Scientist 1 by biting out his throat.

His carotid artery begins to squirt blood everywhere.

EXT. - CHOW TENT

Quinton and the soldiers have returned to the dig site in their jeeps. Sarah and Mr. Fields exit the tent to greet them.

Sarah gives Quinton a hug.

SARAH

(To Quinton)

I'm glad you made it back.

QUINTON

Me too, is Dr. Michaels around?

SARAH

I think he went back to his tent to make a call to the college and let them know what's been going on with the quarantine.

MR FIELDS

What is the effect of the contagion?

Sgt Rock grabs the biohazard bag with the head in it and tosses it at Mr. Fields' feet.

SGT ROCK

I want to introduce you to Mr.
Lopez.

The Head is still moving in the bag. Mr. Fields jumps back,

MR FIELDS

What the hell?

LT NEAL

Yeah, that was sort of my reaction too. We had a hard time keeping the body parts in the fire, they kept crawling away.

Sarah runs off to throw up, Quinton follows her.

MR FIELDS

How did the contagion spread to the villagers?

LT NEAL

We're not sure, I don't think it is airborne; it could be from a bite these infected are really aggressive and hungry.

SGT ROCK

Sir, Benson...

LT NEAL

(To Sgt Rock)

I was getting to that.

(To Mr. Fields)

One of my men was bitten by an infected little girl.

MR FIELDS

Is he showing any signs of the infection?

LT NEAL

No, not that I'm aware of,

(To Dirk)

Dirk, Kim, bring Private Benson out here.

Benson walks around in front of the Jeep with Dirk and Kim guarding him.

CONTINUED: (2)

BENSON

Come on man, that little bitch bit me like an hour ago, if I was going to change into one of those things, don't you think I would have done it by now?

MR FIELDS

Someone please take Mr. Benson to the research tent that we have set up and have them run every test they can think of on him, then bring him back here. If they give the okay that he is free from this infection, then he can return to duty.

LT NEAL

You heard the man. Kim, Dirk, you know what to do. Everyone else get some chow, the first two that finish eating will go and relieve Dirk and Kim.

BENSON

What about me, I'm hungry too?

KIM

When they tell us you're still human, then you can get something to eat, a salad.

Walter comes out of the tent with two cups of coffee in his hands.

DIRK

Where's this research tent at?

WALTER

(Sipping on his coffee)
Hey, I'm headed that way just follow me.

Dirk, Kim, and Benson leave and follow Walter. Lt. Neal, Rock, Ramos, and McKay enter the tent to get something to eat.

EXT. - DR MICHAELS-TENT

Quinton and Sarah arrive at the tent.

QUINTON

Dr. Michaels, it's Quinton, I wanted to give you an update on Lopez and what we found... Dr. Michaels.

Quinton Pauses for a second and when he gets no response He enters with Sarah right behind him.

INT. - DR MICHAELS-TENT

They enter and look around,

QUINTON

Dr. Michaels, are you in here?

UNDER THE BED

The finger that the ring was once on is now lying under the bed. Sarah picks up the ring, but doesn't see the finger.

Suddenly, an infected rat picks up the finger and carries it off.

EXT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

Dirk, Kim, and Benson stop outside the Science tent because Walter's hands are full with his coffee.

WALTER

Can someone get the door for me?

Dirk opens the door and they enter.

INT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

There is no one inside. Someone has taken the cover off of one of the alien corpses.

WALTER

Hey guys, where did you go?

(Looks around)

They were here when I left; maybe they went to the bathroom or something.

Walter sits his coffee down.

WALTER (CONT'D)

What did you need from them maybe I can help?

CONTINUED:

KIM

Benson was bitten by one of the infected; we want to know if he is still human?

WALTER

Well, a simple blood test should determine that, just roll up your sleeves.

Benson sits down in a chair next to a table full of blood drawing equipment and rolls up the sleeve of his uninjured arm.

Walter draws two tubes of blood and places them in the centrifuge and turns the machine on.

DIRK

How long?

WALTER

15 minutes to spin, another 20 minutes for the cellular analysis. Then, another hour for the DNA test to be complete.

KIM

So, about an hour and a half, right?

WALTER

Yeah, that's about right.

Dirk walks over and looks out the tent entrance.

EXT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

The two Scientists are walking toward the tent.

INT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

Dirk is looking out the tent entrance.

DIRK

Hey, things might go a little faster now that the other two scientists are back.

Dirk moves to allow the scientists to enter.

WALTER

Hey, guys while you were out I drew some blood and placed it in the centrifuge.

The Scientists don't respond,

WALTER (CONT'D)

Hey guys...

Both infected Scientists have multiple pieces of flesh ripped away from their bodies.

Their lab coats are soaked in blood.

Benson tries to get up, but the two Scientists are too quick and they start eating on him right away.

BENSON SCREAMS OUT IN PAIN

Dirk and Kim OPEN FIRE on the two Scientists hitting them multiple times, but having little effect, they continue to eat on Benson who is still alive.

WALTER FAINTS

INT. - CHOW TENT-CONTINUOUS

The soldiers are eating at several tables while Mr. Fields, Lt. Neal, Quinton and Sarah discuss what to do next.

QUINTON

We have searched everywhere; there are no signs of where Dr. Michaels could have gone.

SARAH

Yeah, and Dr. Lennox is missing as well.

GUN FIRE

Everyone gets up and leaves the tent in a hurry, the soldiers
Lt. Neal, Rock, Ramos, and McKay grab their weapons.

INT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

Kim is fighting off the infected Scientist 1 with punches and kicks trying to keep him from getting a hold of him.

Dirk is on his back holding Scientist 2's arms while trying not to get bitten.

CONTINUED:

Walter wakes up and notices that Dirk is in trouble so he throws alcohol on the infected Scientist 2; accidentally splashing a little of it in Dirk's eyes.

DIRK

What the hell, you think this fucker needs a drink to go with his meal?

WALTER

My bad!

Dirk is finally able to kick the infected Scientist 2 off of him and as he does Walter sets him on fire. Causing infected Scientist 2 to panic and run out of the tent.

Kim Flips over infected Scientist 1 onto the dead corpse of the alien and stabs him through the chest, pinning him to the table.

EXT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

While infected Scientist 2 runs past everyone and collapses while still on fire.

SARAH

Someone needs to put him out!

Quinton runs over to try and help, Dirk comes running out of the Science tent to stop them.

DIRK

Let it burn, it's not human anymore.

MR FIELDS

So, Benson was infected?

DIRK

Nah, it wasn't him, it was your Scientists... Man, they sure tore Benson up. We played hell getting them off of him.

INT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

Benson is lying on his side dying, blood seeping from major wounds on his head neck and chest.

BENSON

(To Kim)

I told you mother fuckers I didn't have shit, but you assholes wouldn't fucken listen.

KIM

I'm sorry man...

Benson is bleeding out and extremely weak. With his dying breath he said;

BENSON

This is some bullshit!

Quinton, Sarah, Mr. Fields and Lt. Neal enter the tent.

MR FIELDS

Is he dead?

KIM

Yeah...

MR FIELDS

Where's my other Scientist?

KIM

He's over there, I pig stuck him to the table.

Everyone LOOKS over at the now empty table, which has a large knife sticking in the middle of it. I'm telling you, I stuck him hard through the chest.

WALTER

This might be a stupid question, but why did he take the alien corpse?

MR FIELDS

It's getting dark, I suggest we move what we need from here to the Chow tent and set up operations there. And I want security around the tent at all times.

QUINTON

Shouldn't we be looking for Dr.
Michaels, especially with these things out there?

LT NEAL

Once we have everybody secure in the chow tent and accounted for, then I'll have two of my men go look for Dr. Michaels and anyone else who didn't show up.

WALTER

I will need someone to take Benson's body to the tent as well,

LT NEAL

Why?

WALTER

I need to know what is keeping him from turning into one of those things.

INT. - JUNGLE-CONTINUOUS

The sun is starting to go down as Carlos and his driver move quickly as they can through the thick dense jungle.

The Dig site is visible in the distance.

CARLOS

(To his gang member)

We made it!

The driver raises his arms in the air to thank God for their survival.

Just then, two infected villagers, one on each side of the Driver grab his arms and rips them off.

THE DRIVER SCREAMS

The two infected villagers feast on the bloody ends of his detached arms.

The driver falls to the ground dead from blood loss.

But, before Carlos can turn and run the infected villagers (that he shot earlier with the shotgun in the back of the jeep) crawls up and drags the Driver's body off back into the jungle.

More infected appear out of no where forcing Carlos to FIRE his weapon on the run.

EXT. - CHOW TENT-CONTINUOUS

Pvt. Fields and McKay are standing watch.

GUN SHOTS IN NEAR DISTANCE

Everyone comes running out of the tent. Lt. Neal signals Pvt. Fields and Dirk to go with him to investigate.

INT. - JUNGLE-CONTINUOUS

Carlos FIRES his last bullet at the infected villagers that are chasing him.

CARLOS

Eat this you mother fuckers!

Carlos then throws his empty gun at one of the infected villagers hitting in him in the head, and angering him.

Carlos then runs over a small hill to where Lt. Neal, Pvt. Fields and Dirk are standing with their weapons pointed at him.

LT NEAL

Who are you and what are you doing out here?

Carlos keeps looking over his shoulder.

CARLOS

(Scared and anxious)

Are those guns loaded?

Pvt. Fields loads a round in the chamber of his weapon.

CARLOS (CONT'D)

Good, because you're going to need them!

Carlos dives for cover just as an infected male villager is about to grab hold of his leg.

DIRK

Shit, here we go again!

Dirk FIRES his weapon taking off the head of the infected villager.

The Body still reaching out to grab Dirk.

Dirk responds by kicking its hands away.

DIRK (CONT'D)

Keep your damn hands to yourself!

Dirk, Lt Neal and Pvt Fields continue to FIRE THEIR WEAPONS at the advancing infected villagers their weapons cutting into pieces several of the advancing infected.

They are almost overrun with they hear a strange noise.

A LOUD STRANGE SOUND

All of the advancing infected respond to the sound and stop their attack. The infected retreat back into the jungle, defying their own hunger for flesh.

PVT FIELDS

What the fuck was that LT.?

LT NEAL

I don't know but I glad they retreated; I only have one magazine left. Let's get back to camp and see if any of the scientists have come up with anything.

Dirk has his weapon pointed at Carlos who is curled up in a ball.

DIRK

You can get up now, the bad monsters are gone.

Carlos slowly gets up looking around to make sure the infected aren't still around.

DIRK (CONT'D)

Now, who the hell are you?

CARLOS

My name is Carlos; I'm a small business man.

DIRK

A drug dealer.

CARLOS

I provide a valuable service to my American consumers.

DIRK

If you run really fast I promise not to shoot you.

Who cares, get running!

LT NEAL

Wait, he might actually know something, we'll take him back with us.

DIRK

Alright, you get to live a little while longer, now get moving scum bag.

Dirk reluctantly pushes Carlos with his weapon toward the dig site.

INT. - CHOW TENT-CONTINUOUS

Carlos is sitting in a chair with everyone gathered around him.

MR FIELDS

Let's start from the beginning.

CARLOS

Okay, several days ago your fucking men here, came into my home and destroyed it, they took things of value from me. You know things that would have brought a high ransom.

Rock locks and loads his weapon and aims it at Carlos's head.

ROCK

This has gone on long enough; let's send this piece of shit to hell where it belongs.

LT NEAL

Back off Rock, we're not murderers.

SARAH

You said, you were coming here with your men, where are they now?

CARLOS

We stopped at the village 20 miles east of here for something to eat.
(MORE)

CARLOS (CONT'D)

The next thing we know the whole village has turned into these fucking creatures. I lost 30 good men there.

SARAH

How many were in the village?

CARLOS

Maybe one hundred fifty.

Sarah looks over at Rock.

SARAH

(To LT. Neal)

And how many did you kill and burn at the village?

LT NEAL

About twenty, I see where you're going with this. Shit, that means there are more than a hundred of those hard to kill sons of bitches out there.

PVT FIELDS

What about that noise we heard, you know, the sound that made them all retreat?

LT NEAL

Yeah, there was a strange noise almost an animal sound. I don't know if they left to go eat it or what?

Quinton is packing things up in the chow tent.

PVT FIELDS

What is he doing?

Quinton notices everyone looking at him.

QUINTON

There's only one place around here we can defend against so many, and that is the caves.

DIRK

(To Quinton)

I knew there was a reason I liked you.

Walter looks up from his microscope.

WALTER

You're not going to believe this, but this infection changes DNA structure at the cellular level.

KIM

So what?

WALTER

The infected people aren't just turned into a blood thirsty killing machine, they are evolving.

LT NEAL

Evolving into what?

WALTER

(Concerned)

I'm not sure yet.

Lt. Neal walks over and looks at Benson's body covered up next to the side of the tent.

LT NEAL

Do you think he holds the answers to us not getting the infection?

WALTER

Yeah, I do.

A weapon makes a large cut into the tent at head level cutting across Lt. Neal's neck.

Slowly Lt. Neal's head falls off of his body and his body collapses.

Several infected quickly reach under the side of the tent and take Benson's body away.

EVERYONE OPENS FIRE

GUN FIRE EVERYWHERE

Pvt. Fields runs out of the tent first followed shortly after by everyone, except Marsha.

EXT. -CHOW TENT-CONTINUOUS

As they go around the tent they discover that the Alien is alive and eating Pvt. Fields heart.

CONTINUED:

Because of the heavy bone structure in Alien's chest and head area the bullets are having little effect on him.

GUN FIRE

Several infected lead by an infected Dr. Lennox grab hold of Sarah, Jeff tries to get them away, but is taken down and eaten by them.

Kim removes Dr. Lennox's face along with half his head just as he tries to bite Sarah on the neck.

The Alien swings his large weapon at Dirk's head. Dirk reacts by turning his head to the side, but not fast enough.

A FLARE FIRED by Sarah from a flare gun hits the alien in the chest burning him.

ALIEN CRIES OUT IN PAIN

The Alien runs off with the infected running right behind him.

ROCK

What the hell was that?

QUINTON

This might sound crazy, but I think it was one of the alien skeletons we found.

An infected rat finds Dirk's ear and runs off with it, no one notices.

KIM

I'm going back to the science tent and make sure that those other skeletons don't have a chance to turn in to whatever that was.

Kim leaves

Rock helps Dirk put on a field dressing covering where his ear use to be.

DIRK

Someone find my ear, I'll sew it back on myself.

Everyone looks briefly.

ROCK

Sorry dude, it's not here.

DIRK

Them flesh eating sons of bitches must have taken it; I hope they choke on it.

INT. - CHOW TENT

Dr. Michaels is sitting beside Marsha who is reading a book with her Ipod head phones on.

Marsha is completely unaware of everything that has just happened.

Everyone is returning to the tent.

SARAH

(To Quinton)

Look, Dr. Michaels has returned.

Quinton walks over to where Dr. Michaels is sitting.

QUINTON

Dr. Michaels, Dr. Michaels...

When Quinton is a few feet away he realizes that Dr. Michaels is now and infected.

Infected Dr. Michaels is trying to read a book, almost as if he is fighting to stay human.

ROCK

He's infected!

Rock points his weapon at Dr. Michaels.

QUINTON

Wait, he seems to be controlling it.

Marsha pulls out a candy bar and starts to eat it.

Marsha looks over her shoulder and realizes that Dr. Michaels is infected.

Dr. Michaels grabs Marsha's hand and pulls the candy bar close to his mouth.

Marsha relaxes

MARSHA
(To Dr. Michaels)
Its okay, you can have the candy bar.

Then instead of eating just a small bite, Dr. Michaels bites all the way down and bites off Marsha's index finger.

MARSHA SCREAMS as scrambles to get away.

Infected Dr. Michaels is really enjoying the taste up until the moment he is shot in the head by Rock.

As Marsha starts to go into shock, she is shot in the head by Chang.

Everyone turns their weapons on Chang.

CHANG
(Very defensive)
She was turning into one of those creatures.

Sarah snatches the gun out of Chang's hand.

SARAH
No, she wasn't turning, she was going into shock, jackass!

Sarah hits him in the head out of anger.

ROCK
Where's Mr. Fields?

Everyone looks around briefly, but he isn't in the tent.

ROCK (CONT'D)
Listen up; I'm taking charge and we are all moving to the caves. With a little luck there might be a few of us left alive to tell the rescue team what happened.
(To Chang)
And if you even look like you want to shoot one of us, I'll kill you myself, then I'll hand feed what's left of you to those things out there. Do I make myself clear?

Chang shakes his head yes in fear.

SARAH

Can't we take the vehicles and just leave?

ROCK

We're under quarantine, which means if the vehicles approach the 50 mile perimeter they will be destroyed. Ramos,

RAMOS

Yes Sergeant,

Rock throws her a set of keys and she catches them.

ROCK

You have one set and I have the other, just incase.

RAMOS

If someone wants this key they'll have to take it off my dead body.

Carlos watches as Ramos puts the keys away.

INT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

Kim is finishing pouring gasoline on the two remaining alien skeletons and then lights them on fire.

As the bodies begin to burn Kim walks out of the tent.

EXT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

Kim exits the tent and runs right into a group of unhappy infected lead by the infected Large Guard from the drug gang.

Kim quickly draws his weapon.

KIM

Dude, just die already! You should be dead like five times. But since you're not, I'll just have to make sure there isn't a number six.

The infected Large Guard GROWLS keeping the other infected away.

KIM (CONT'D)

So you do remember me, interesting.

Kim starts to slowly lower his weapon.

CONTINUED:

KIM (CONT'D)

I'm just going to put this down, so I can get my katana out, since you have a machete it will be a fair fight.

Kim puts his weapon on the ground and pulls his sword from its secure place on his back.

One of the infected gets anxious and charges at Kim, who quickly spins and removes the man's head.

The Large Guard smiles with his necrotic blood drenched teeth.

KIM (CONT'D)

I bet you ate your mamma with that mouth.

SERIES OF ACTION (Kim fights infected large guard)

1.) -- The infected Large Guard attacks by swinging his machete wildly at Kim.

2.) -- Kim moves around quickly to avoid being hit.

3.) -- The infected Large Guard attacks again, this time Kim cuts him in the groin.

4.) -- The infected large Guard's testicles drop out his pants legs causing him to have a human response by looking down and GROANING.

5.) -- Kim shrugs his shoulders and prepares for another attack.

6.) -- The infected large Guard swings his machete at Kim's head causing Kim to duck and counter swing, cutting so quickly that the infected large Guard doesn't realize he is cut until his head falls off.

END OF ACTION SERIES

The Alien arrives and goes to the burned down Science tent to find that the corpses are destroyed beyond reanimation and he becomes very angry, letting out a (LOUD WAR CRY).

KIM (CONT'D)

You're just in time I was about to roast some marsh mellowes and wienies, I already have the nuts.

CLOSE ON: Testicles on the ground.

The Alien BANGS his weapon against his chest while showing his teeth, taunting Kim into a fight.

INT./EXT.- CAVES-CONTINUOUS

Sgt Rock sets up security at the front of the cave with Ramos and Whitehurst pulling first guard duty.

Everyone else is setting up equipment.

Quinton and Sarah look around for the generator to get the lights working. Quinton finds the switch and turns the lights on.

ROCK

Keep those lights as low as possible we don't want to let those things to know we are up here.
McKay,

McKay comes over to Rock.

MCKAY

What's up Rock?

ROCK

See if you can reach home base, maybe we can get some help out here.

MCKAY

I've been trying on my cell, the C.O.M.S.A.C. And the multi-band since we left the chow tent, but nothing.

ROCK

Keep trying.

MCKAY

We need the MARS equipment that Mr. Fields had if we are going to reach anybody before morning.

COPELAND

Right now, that guy's probably in the bottom of some creature's stomach.

INT. - JUNGLE-CONTINUOUS

Mr. Fields is nervously pacing in an open area, armed only with a hand gun.

CONTINUED:

Mr. Fields hears someone sneaking up on him and turns, he is caught off guard and knocked to the ground by a very hungry infected villager.

Before the infected can bite Mr. Fields an ultra violet light hits him in the eyes and blinds him.

As the infected villager backs away he is set on fire by a soldier holding a flame thrower.

Mr. Fields is assisted by a (GENERAL) 55-70, Caucasian male to his feet.

GENERAL

I'm sorry we're a little late,
Deputy Secretary.

MR FIELDS

It looks like you found some more of their weaknesses.

GENERAL

Everyone at the State Department is in full agreement with your assessment. That's why I have brought a team of the best here to capture it for study.

MR FIELDS

Imagine the diseases we will be able to cure.

GENERAL

I'm more interested in the possibility of an army of soldiers that can't be killed.

EXT. - SCIENCE TENT-CONTINUOUS

SERIES OF ACTION (Kim fights with the Alien)

- 1.) -- Kim rolls to avoid being cut by the Alien's weapon.
- 2.) -- Then, as Kim swings his own blade the Alien blocks it with his weapon breaking Kim's sword in half.
- 3.) -- The Alien knocks Kim to the ground and is about to kill him when Kim stabs him with what was left of the sword.
- 4.) -- The Alien hits Kim in the face with a knee knocking him flat on his back in a dazed state.

5.) -- As the Alien raises his weapon to kill Kim, he stops and turns his attention toward an infected soldier just arriving.

6.) -- The Alien SNARLS and makes a WEIRD SOUND, and before Kim can come to his senses they are all gone.

END OF SERIES OF ACTION

INT. - CAVE-CONTINUOUS

Dirk is looking around and realizes there are several tunnels in the back of the cave.

DIRK

Hey Quinton, where do these lead too?

QUINTON

The right one leads to a chamber of some kind and the left just goes deeper under ground. We haven't had the time to investigate them thoroughly since the alien find.

DIRK

Hey Rock,

Dirk points to the tunnels.

ROCK

Alright, take Whitehurst with you.

DIRK

(To Whitehurst)

You heard the man, let's go.

WHITEHURST

Can't you take Ramos or Copeland? I don't like closed in dark places.

DIRK

(Sarcastically)

If you are that scared you can hold the flashlight.

Whitehurst quickly grabs the flashlight out of Dirk's hand.

WHITEHURST

I ain't scared, but I will take the flashlight anyway.

CONTINUED:

They go out down the tunnels as Rock is looking out with his night vision goggles.

ROCK

I think help might have arrived.

Sarah and Quinton come over to him. Rock turns and hands Sarah the goggles. She looks out to where he is pointing.

VIEW FROM GOGGLES

Several vehicles are driving through the nearby jungle with ultra-violet lights on.

QUINTON

Can they see us?

ROCK

Only if they are looking directly at us, we will need something brighter.

QUINTON

Screw the infected, turn up the lights and get a fire going. We're getting out of here!

McKay tries to raise them on the radio.

Copeland finds something to burn and starts a fire going at the front of the cave.

INT. - TUNNEL-CONTINUOUS

Whitehurst is leading the way, but he is visibly nervous.

DIRK

Can you walk a little faster; I want to have this tunnel explored before help arrives?

WHITEHURST

Why do you got to be like that, I'm just being thorough.

As Dirk and Whitehurst turn the corner a giant shadow of a creature appears on the wall.

WHITEHURST (CONT'D)

(Scared)

What the hell is that?

CONTINUED:

As the infected rat gets closer the shadow shrinks until the infected rat is standing in front of them holding onto an ear.

DIRK
That's my fucking ear!

The infected rat takes off down another tunnel.

DIRK (CONT'D)
Come back here you little bastard!

Dirk takes off running after the escaping infected rat.

WHITEHURST
Hey Dirk get back here, come-on man shit. If you don't come back in like 10 seconds I'm leaving your ass here.

Whitehurst is getting really nervous as several more infected rats appear out from the shadows caused by the flashlight.

WHITEHURST (CONT'D)
Dirk, I'm leaving, I mean it!

Now there are almost 20 infected rats surrounding Whitehurst.

WHITEHURST (CONT'D)
You know what Dirk, to hell with you, I'm out of here!

Whitehurst turns around to go back down the tunnel. Standing in front of him are now hundreds of infected rats.

Whitehurst raises his weapon to shoot.

WHITEHURST (CONT'D)
I still remember you mother fuckers from the projects. I'll be taken back my little toe, now!

As the infected rats move toward Whitehurst he OPENS FIRE.

AUTOMATIC WEAPONS FIRE

INT. - CAVE-CONTINUOUS

The FAINT SOUNDS OF WEAPONS FIRE makes its way to the group.

SARAH
Did you hear that?

CONTINUED:

ROCK

Yeah, those damn things must have somehow gotten in. Copeland with me. Chang, it's time you make yourself useful and watch the entrance with Ramos.

Rock's flashlight is very dim; he shakes it several times to get it to brighten up.

QUINTON

Wait,

Quinton grabs a torch off the wall and lights it.

QUINTON (CONT'D)

We might need this, if I'm right it will be more effective than your weapons.

Quinton, Sarah and Rock take off down the tunnel in the direction of the WEAPONS FIRE.

INT. - TUNNEL-CONTINUOUS

Quinton is ahead of everybody with the torch lighting the way. As they approach what's left of Whitehurst the infected rats run off fearful of the fire.

QUINTON

I found someone!

Quinton holds the torch close so that the light will reveal any injuries.

Whitehurst is severely chewed on and half eaten. Both feet are chewed off and lying by his legs. His one arm and hand are chewed off as well.

ROCK

At least the poor bastard is dead.

Rock accidentally drops his flashlight beside Whitehurst and when he bends down to pick it up Whitehurst GASPS and wakes up.

Rock is startled

ROCK (CONT'D)

What the fuck?

WHITEHURST

Shit, I feel like crap...

(Looks up)

Hey Rock, they got me, man.

ROCK

I'm sorry dude, but you know what I have to do.

WHITEHURST

I know, but at least they didn't get my other 9 toes, did they?

Quinton looks at whitehurst's feet which have been chewed off.

QUINTON

No, I counted 9 toes.

CLOSE ON: Two Feet with two toes each lying beside whitehurst not connected to his legs.

WHITEHURST

I don't want to be one of those things, Rock...

ROCK

I know, buddy.

Rock quickly SHOOTS Whitehurst in the head.

QUINTON

I'm sorry you had to do that.

ROCK

Yeah, Me too.

COPELAND

Do we go looking for Dirk, now?

ROCK

No, he's probably one of those things by now. If not he's on his own.

Quinton moves the torch around looking down the other end of the tunnel.

THE SOUND OF SOMETHING BEING EATEN.

CONTINUED: (2)

Quinton quickly turns the torch toward Whitehurst's body revealing hundreds of infected rats are now feeding on Whitehurst, when the light hits them they drag the body of Whitehurst away back down into the dark tunnel.

Copeland OPENS FIRE

ROCK (CONT'D)

Cease fire, save the ammunition, they can't hurt him anymore. Let's get out of here while they're still busy.

INT. - CAVE-CONTINUOUS

As they return McKay walks up,

MCKAY

I've made contact, but every time I try and communicate they switch frequencies. It is as if they don't want to let us know what they are doing.

ROCK

I was afraid of that.

QUINTON

What do you mean?

ROCK

They have already determined we are compromised, and a lost asset.

SARAH

So, does that mean they are not going to help us?

ROCK

It means that none of us are expected to leave here alive.

WALTER

Well, I'm not dying here just give me four more hours and I'm sure I'll figure out a way to stop the infection.

ROCK

I really doubt we have four hours. Right now we need to keep those little bastards out.

CONTINUED:

Rock picks up a piece of wood and throws it in front of the rat tunnel. Sarah and Quinton quickly pitch in to help.

CHANG

What was down there?

SARAH

Rats!

WALTER

Rats, how many?

SARAH

Thousands!

WALTER

Infected?

Sarah and Quinton shake their heads.

WALTER (CONT'D)

That's really not good.

ROCK

You don't say...

WALTER

What I mean is, there's 1000 rats out there for every person on the planet and if these are infected it won't take long for the rest of the world to become infected as well.

Rock looks over at the entrance of the cave and no one is guarding it.

ROCK

(To Chang)

Why the hell aren't you guarding the entrance?

CHANG

Ramos asked me to get her some peanuts that she had in her back pack.

Chang shows Rock he has the bag of peanuts in his hand. Rock goes to the front entrance of the cave to look for Ramos.

ROCK

Ramos! Ramos!

CONTINUED: (2)

Rock walks a little further and finds Ramos dead with her head bashed in by a large rock nearby.

CLOSE ON: Her Pockets turned inside out.

ROCK (CONT'D)
That son of a bitch, I should have listened to Dirk, and put a bullet in his head.

The others walk over to see what has happened.

CHANG
I didn't do it.

SARAH
Where's Carlos?

QUINTON
He's probably half way to the vehicles by now.

SARAH
What if he's rights, maybe we should have just gone to the vehicles and drove out of here?

As they look out from the entrance they hear WEAPONS FIRE in the distance, then a vehicle drives off quickly.

QUINTON
He's getting away.

ROCK
Just wait...

In the distance a missile hits the vehicle BLOWING IT UP.

ROCK (CONT'D)
Our only hope is that Walter comes up with something I can barter with.

WALTER
What if I can't?

ROCK
We're all dead...

INT. - VEHICLE CRASH SITE

Carlos is mortally wounded and severely bleeding, he looks up to see that several hungry infected are coming for him.

CONTINUED:

CARLOS
(To Self)
Fuck that, I'm not getting eaten!

Carlos places his hand gun to his chin and flips off the infected with his other hand.

CARLOS (CONT'D)
Kiss my ass mother fuckers!

Carlos pulls the trigger, but he is out of bullets.

The infected hover over him.

CARLOS (CONT'D)
(Whimpers)

The infected waste no time in tearing him apart as they drag pieces of him out of the vehicle.

SHORT DISTANCE AWAY

The General and Mr. Fields look on while Carlos is being torn apart.

GENERAL
Now that's an effective killing machine. I can't wait to get them into our arsenal.

Mr. Fields is starting to believe this is a very bad idea. The General gets a message in his head set.

MESSAGE O.S.
The infected have gathered around the alien just as you said they would. We have them contained and await further orders.

GENERAL
(To Headset)
Stand by I'm on my way, if they try anything, burn a few of them to send a message.
(To Mr. Fields)
Well, let's go bag and tag our new weapon.

(SOLDIER 1) and (SOLDIER 2) are standing by.

EXT. - CAVE ENTRANCE-CONTINUOUS

Soldiers are walking toward the entrance.

SOLDIER 1
You remember what the General said;
we can't leave any of them alive.

Kim is hiding very close by listening in on their conversation.

SOLDIER 2
(Chuckles)
Yeah, it sucks to be them.

INT. - CAVE-CONTINUOUS

Copeland is guarding the entrance while looking out with his night vision goggles.

TUNNEL ENTRANCE

The group of survivors have finished sealing off the Rat tunnel.

CAVE ENTRANCE

NIGHT VISION GOGGLES- Soldiers 1 and 2 sneak up the rock face.

Copeland is wearing night vision goggles.

COPELAND
Hey, Rock we got company and I don't think they're here to help.

ROCK
Everyone take cover.

The two soldiers reach the entrance of the cave.

That's far enough, now lower your weapons!

SOLDIER 1
We are on the same team. How do we know you're not protecting an infected person in there?

Walter unaware of what's going on around him completes a possible cure and is excited about.

WALTER
I think I got it, hay Quinton check this out.

Receiving no answer, Walter walks toward Quinton. Soldier 1 reacts by SHOOTING Walter in the chest.

EVERYONE FIRING THEIR WEAPONS

Soldier 2 FIRES his flame thrower at them keeping everyone pinned down.

Kim sneaks up on Soldier 2 and stabs him with his sword. The soldier turns toward Kim still spraying flames.

The flames from the flame thrower hit Chang who then runs out the entrance SCREAMING while on fire.

Rock SHOOTS soldier 1 killing him.

ROCK
Is everyone alright?

Copeland looks out at the smoldering body of Chang.

COPELAND
Chang's toast.

Walter is lying on the ground mortally wounded.

SARAH (Stunned)
Walter!

Quinton quickly kneels down beside Walter.

QUINTON
Hold on Walter, you're going to make it.

impending death)
I promise.

WALTER
Take this...

Walter hands Quinton 2 vials of something.

QUINTON
What is it?

Walter is fading in and out of consciousness.

QUINTON (CONT'D)
Walter!

WALTER
It will block the infection if you haven't been bitten already.

Walter tries to pull out a piece of paper from his pocket, but dies before he can pull it out all the way.

Quinton takes the paper out of Walter's pocket.

CLOSE ON: Piece of paper with Chemical compounds and formulas on it.

ROCK
What is it?

QUINTON
If I know Walter it's probably the formula to make more.

A missile is FIRED

It hits the cave entrance.

Copeland sees it coming and is able to give a slight warning.

COPELAND
Get down!

A LARGE EXPLOSION at the opening of the cave.

INT. - JUNGLE-CONTINUOUS

The soldiers from the special unit have the alien and 30 infected cornered.

GENERAL

Let's move out and wrap this up; I need to be back in Washington tomorrow for a briefing.

The Soldiers advance killing and burning many of the infected.

When they get close enough to try and put a net on the alien he MAKES A LOUD STRANGE SOUND.

Suddenly, the soldiers are completely surrounded, the 50 infected waste no time in killing and eating their way to the alien in order to protect it.

Panic sets in and the soldiers begin to run away.

GENERAL (CONT'D)

Shit, there's too many, retreat back to the vehicles!

The General is shooting the infected with his hand gun as he runs back to the vehicles.

INT. - CAVE-CONTINUOUS

The cave has been sealed up by fallen rocks.

Rock is the first one to get to his feet; he looks around and finds Copeland with a large rock sitting on his head.

ROCK

Anybody alive?

SARAH

I'm over here.

Sarah is getting to her feet; she has a small laceration on her forehead.

SARAH (CONT'D)

Quinton, where's Quinton?

Something slowly begins to move beneath the rubble, it is Quinton slowly unearthing himself.

QUINTON

My ears are ringing...

Quinton slowly gets to his feet.

QUINTON (CONT'D)
What the hell was that?

ROCK
Some type of missile.

Quinton looks around.

QUINTON
Where is everybody?

Rock looks over at McKay's legs sticking out of the rubble.

ROCK
What do we do now?

AT THE RAT TUNNEL

The dirt is being moved by something, possibly an infected or several infected.

Rock pulls his handgun out and aims it at whatever is digging its way in.

At first it's an arm, and then it sticks a flashlight through the opening to look around.

SARAH
Have they gotten that smart already?

Quinton picks up a rock and throws it at the person coming through the hole hitting Dirk in the head.

DIRK
Ouch, you asshole, that hurt!

Everyone runs over and helps him the rest of the way through the hole he has dug.

ROCK
Where the hell have you been, and why aren't you infected?

DIRK
Where's Whitehurst?

SARAH
He didn't make it, he was waiting for you.

DIRK

(A little upset)

Damn it, I'm sorry, I saw a rat running off with my ear and I lost my head. I wanted to come right back, but I ended up getting locked in a strange room that looked a lot like a control room of some kind.

QUINTON

A control room?

SARAH

How did you get out?

DIRK

That Alien came in about an hour later and turned a couple of things on and left, and when he did I made sure I snuck out before the door closed.

QUINTON

If that creature is signaling home we have to stop it. Could you imagine how quickly they could turn the entire world's population into their zombie slaves?

SARAH

Are you really going to call them zombie slaves?

QUINTON

If you got a better name for them, let me hear it?

Sarah can't think of anything.

SARAH

(Doesn't have anything)

Let's just find a way out of here.

ROCK

We can't go anywhere until we knock out its ability to contact its home world.

Dirk keeps looking at his watch.

DIRK

Did I forget to mention I planted some C - 4 in the room before I left?

CONTINUED: (2)

ROCK

Yeah, I think you left that part out.

DIRK

It should be going off, right about now!

A LARGE EXPLOSION ROCKS THE TUNNELS.

DIRK (CONT'D)

Follow me, we need to get moving. I think there is going to be one really pissed off alien looking for us, right about now!

Dirk, Rock, Quinton and Sarah move quickly through the tunnel.

EXT. - CONTROL ROOM-CONTINUOUS

The Alien comes out of the smoked filled room highly pissed off. He sends several infected out to search for whoever just destroyed his space ship.

EXT. - CAVE OPENING- EARLY MORNING - CONTINUOUS

It is getting light out as the sun is rising. Rock, Dirk, Quinton, and Sarah emerge from the cave battered and exhausted.

They stop briefly to adjust their eyes to the sun light. Then, someone in military uniform peeks around the corner and sees them.

ROCK

We have to stop him before he tells the others.

When they give chase the infected soldier's head which was almost decapitated earlier falls off to the side and barely stays on as he gets away.

DIRK

That's some sick shit.

ROCK

Let's keep moving.

SARAH

Where are we going to go?

CONTINUED:

ROCK

I'm thinking we take one of the military vehicles and drive out of here.

QUINTON

Look what happened to Carlos?

DIRK

Did you notice his uniform?

SARAH

Who, the guy who couldn't keep his head on?

DIRK

Yeah, I'm betting that most of the soldiers are dead or infected by now.

ROCK

I see where you're going with this; we take one of their vehicles instead of ours.

A FAINT GROWLING from multiple infected is coming from the cave.

SARAH

They're coming!

Dirk, Rock, Sarah and Quinton take off running.

INT. - SCIENCE TRAILER-CONTINUOUS

The General is sitting and drinking a cup of coffee without a care in the world. Mr. Fields is pacing back and forth.

GENERAL

Just relax Fields, the reinforcements will be here any minute now.

MR FIELDS

If these things find their way to a large city we are all screwed.

GENERAL

That's not going to happen, operation Clean Sweep was put into effect the second we arrived here.

it.

GENERAL

(On Cell Phone)

Hello, hello, who is this?

Someone KNOCKS on the back door.

GENERAL (CONT'D)

That's got to be the re enforcements.

The General goes to open the door.

MR FIELDS

I don't think that's a good idea
General, it could be an infected.

The Door opens and it's a normal soldier, an officer standing there with his weapon.

GENERAL

Come on in, we have been waiting for you.

The General turns his back and goes to sit back down. While
Mr. Fields is looking at the monitors.

MONITOR VIEW

An infected villager darts by tackling and then starts eating on the army officer while another infected soldier stands at the door just looking in.

GENERAL

Don't be shy soldier come on in and close the door there might still be some infected walking around.

Mr. Fields YELLS

MR FIELDS

Wait!

The General turns and has his fingers bitten off by the infected soldier.

The General SCREAMS out in pain.

Mr. Fields FIRES a bullet into the infected soldier's head knocking him to the ground.

GENERAL

Thank you, you saved my life.

MR FIELDS

No, I really didn't, you're already dead.

Mr. Fields pushes the General out the doorway and closes the door.

A VIOLENT FEEDING FRENZY IS HEARD OUTSIDE.

Rock, Dirk, Quinton, and Sarah are watching the trailer from a distance as the group of infected eat the last little bit of the General.

DIRK

That was the command trailer I'm sure of it. When they leave to go look for dessert I'll go check it for intel. Hopefully I'll find us a way out of here.

Dirk starts slowly making his way toward the trailer. A severed hand is caressing one of Sarah's breasts.

SARAH

(To Quinton)

While I do find this a little arousing, now's not the time, Quinton.

Quinton has no idea what she is talking about. She looks down at her breasts and Quinton shows her both his hands. Rock shows her his hands as well.

Sarah SCREAMS when she realizes it's a severed hand.

She pulls the hand off and throws it, but it comes after her again.

Rock then stabs it with his knife.

ROCK

(To the hand)

While it would be nice to have an extra hand in the shower sometimes.

Sarah, and Quinton look at Rock in disappointment.

ROCK (CONT'D)
But, I'm going to have to give you the boot.

Rock kicks the hand very far away as Quinton and Sarah look at each other.

Rock notices they are still staring at him.

ROCK (CONT'D)
I was talking about for those hard to reach places.

Both of them shake their heads at Rock.

Dirk sneaks his way over to the trailer and opens the door.

When Dirk opens the door Mr. Fields FIRES his weapon and almost kills Dirk.

The bullet has torn off part of his other ear. The noise has attracted the infected.

While bleeding, Dirk runs back to the others before he is seen.

Before Mr. Fields can get the door closed he is overwhelmed by the group of infected that follow him into the trailer to feed.

Sarah looks at Dirk's bleeding ear and tears off a piece of her top to field dress his wound.

When Sarah tears it off, she partially exposes both of her breasts.

All three men briefly stare at her breasts.

Now, the Alien and the rest of the infected are closing in on them.

ROCK (CONT'D)
Let's try and make it to those vehicles over there.

They all quickly take off running toward several army vehicles.

EXT. - ARMY VEHICLES- CONTINUOUS

Just as they arrive several infected (soldiers and villagers) come out of hiding from behind a vehicle blocking their path.

SARAH (Frantic)
What do we do?

ROCK
We'll have to fight through them.

The Alien arrives with 20 more infected.

QUINTON
Oh yeah, we're fucked!

DIRK
I'll be damn if I'm going to be lunch. I'll cover while you guys try and make it to one of the vehicles.

ROCK
(To Dirk)
Like hell you will.
(To Quinton and Sarah)
You two get out of here when the shooting starts.
See you in hell, Dirk.

SERIES OF ACTION (Dirk and Rock fight the alien)

1.) -- Dirk and Rock SHOOT and kill the infected that are blocking the path to the vehicles.

2.) -- And then Dirk and Rock turn their attention toward the Alien while Quinton and Sarah make their way to the vehicles and get into a MEDICAL Hummer.

3.) -- The Alien is hit several times by Dirk's weapons fire. The alien retaliates by throwing his weapon at Dirk.

The weapon hits Dirk in the chest and knocks him off his feet, killing him instantly.

4.) -- The alien then runs right at Rock.

5.) -- Rock moves out of its way and hits the Alien with a hard kick in the face.

6.) -- Rock and the Alien clash hand blades several times.

7.) -- Despite Rocks ability to fight he is cut several times by the alien's knife like weapon.

END OF SERIES

INT. - VEHICLE-CONTINUOUS

Quinton is having a hard time trying to start the vehicle.

SARAH

Let's get this thing started and get the hell out of here.

QUINTON

It's acting like its not getting any gas. I'll have to go out and look under the hood.

Quinton exits the vehicle and quickly pops open the hood.

CLOSE ON: An infected villager is lying inside the engine chewing on the gas line.

The infected villager tries to bite Quinton, but before he can Quinton slams the hood down several times on him, crushing his head and rendering it harmless.

Quinton reconnects the gas line and closes the hood and jumps back into the vehicle.

Sarah is fighting off an infected that has broken her window and is trying to put his head into the window.

SARAH

Can we go now!

QUINTON

I'm trying, just give me a couple of seconds.

EXT. - VEHICLES-CONTINUOUS

The Alien has beaten Rock down and follows Rock as he crawls toward Dirk's body.

The infected are now trying to get into the Hummer Sarah and Quinton are sitting in.

The Alien holds Rock down with his foot as it pulls his weapon out of Dirk's chest.

Rock is bleeding from everywhere.

Rock is weak and exhausted, unable to stop the Alien who is about to kill him.

EDGE OF JUNGLE

Kim walks out from the jungle wounded holding a grenade launcher.

Surprised the Alien steps off of Rock's chest and starts to advance toward Kim.

KIM
(To the Alien)
Hey bitch, we weren't done fighting yet!

Kim FIRES the rocket, Rock dives for cover as the missile BLOWS the Alien into a million pieces.

Rock is covered with hundreds of pieces of Alien flesh.

The infected become confused and disoriented for a couple of seconds.

The Hummer starts and then pulls around to pick up Rock.

Quinton gets out and helps Rock into the back before driving over and picking up Kim.

30 MINUTES LATER:

INT. - VEHICLE - DIRT ROAD - CONTINUOUS

ROCK
We should be out of the blast zone by now.

Kim LOOKS at his watch.

KIM
The nukes should have fired by now.

SARAH
Is that them?

FRONT WINDOW VIEW

Fire balls are moving across the sky in a pattern like space craft headed in the direction of the dig site.

ROCK
Damn, I guess Dirk was a little late blowing up the control room.

ROCK (CONT'D)

(To Quinton)
Do you still have that serum?

QUINTON
Yeah, what do you have in mind?

ROCK
Kim and I will need it.

Sarah looks around and finds an medic bag. She then gets the needles ready.

Kim rolls up his sleeve and waits for the injection from Sarah.

KIM
What is it?

SARAH
It makes you immune to their bite.

KIM Awesome!

After receiving the injection Kim starts getting his weapon and ammo set up.

Sarah then gives Rock and injection with the last of the serum.

SARAH
What are you going to do?

ROCK
(To Sarah)
You see that the formula gets made so people out there have a fighting chance.
(To Quinton)
Quinton, I'm going to need you to stop the vehicle.

Quinton slows the vehicle down.

QUINTON
What are you guys planning, there's too many you can't stop them?

ROCK
We're United States soldiers and we don't quit until the mission is done or we're dead.

Quinton stops the vehicle and everyone exits.

EXT. - VEHICLES-CONTINUOUS

Kim opens the back of the vehicle and pulls out several more weapons and hands a few of them to Rock.

Sarah hugs Kim and Rock.

QUINTON

Good Luck.

A hand starts caressing Sarah's breast again and as she looks down at it SHE SCREAMS.

Kim draws his weapon and gets ready, but it is Rock's hand.

ROCK

Sorry, my bad, I noticed them earlier and just had to know if those were real.

SARAH

How is it that even in the face of certain death a man will still think about sex?

All the men shrug their shoulders and shake their heads.

SARAH (CONT'D)

If I knew it was that important to you I would have just shown them too you.

Sarah starts to take her top off, but Quinton stops her.

QUINTON

Wait, you can flash them if they make it back alive... Call it a little motivation to survive.

ROCK

Motivation is good...

Sarah goes and gets back in the vehicle and Quinton follows her after shaking Rock and Kim's hand.

The medical hummer drives off.

KIM

Well,

ROCK
Well, what?

KIM
Were they real?

ROCK
There are some things a gentleman shouldn't discuss.

KIM
Gentleman my ass, you grabbed her boobs.

6 infected are now running toward Kim and Rock.

ROCK
Are you going to help kill these things or are you going to be jealous all day?

Kim shrugs his shoulders and starts SHOOTING the approaching infected.

WIDE VIEW:

There are infected attacking Kim and Rock from every direction.
